

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

The writer concluded that in this novella, the writer used three steps of research and development modification by Sukmadinata (2005). They are preliminary study, model development and final product. In the preliminary study, the writer found some information about novella. Then, the writer wrote the first draft of the novella. As a result the first draft that made by the writer consist of 190 pages with 32.450. The main character in the novella is Nur. The theme of novella is romance. The plot of novella is reverse and chronological plot.

After that, the first draft was given to the experts. The experts are Mr. Pedro S.Pd, who checked the content and language that was used by the writer and Mrs. Catur Septi Winanti S.Pd, who checked the structure/grammar in the novella. Finally, the writer got the second draft. After that, the writer continued to make model draft. In this step, the writer started to make the draft that would be developed such as cover, opening word section, the content of the short story itself, and the author's profile. Second, in model development, the writer asked for comments and suggestions from some readers. In limited testing, the writer gave the second draft to 3 persons who loved reading novel, novella and short story. After the writer revised the second draft based on the opinion of readers, the writer continued to wider testing. In the wider testing, the writer chose wattpad as a medium to share the novella to experts because wattpad can be read by many people. So the experts are easy to read and give comment about novella. Based on their corrections and suggestions the writer revised the story of novella. And the last step is the final product. As a result the final product consist of 189 pages with 32.395. The main character in the novella is Nur. The theme of novella is romance. The plot of novella is reverse and chronological plot. The final product was produced to accompany this research and also the writer's private collection. After that, the writer uploaded the novella into wattpad: @sityam3009

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the results of writing a novella entitled “A Reason for Being Life” that has been done, the writer would like to give some suggestion as follows:

1. For the next researcher, he should apply the research and development method based on expert opinions. Researcher should understand starting from the basic understanding until the steps of making it, so the process will be easier.
2. For the next writers especially the students of English Department Sriwijaya state Polytechnic, they can make more novella or other fiction stories about tourism in their own cities because it will help the government to promote tourism so that it can increase tourists to visit.
3. For the next writers especially the students of English Department Sriwijaya state Polytechnic, who want to write fiction story such as novella, the writer suggests to find the newest tourism attraction in Palembang that need to more promotion.
