

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1. Conclusion

The writer concludes that the Celosia Flower Park is potential as a new tourism destinations in Palembang. It has fulfilled the five aspects of the potential tourism destination such as attractions, accessibility, amenities, ancillary, and public facilities. The attractions in Celosia Flower Park are the spots of Celosia flowers, 5 spots for taking pictures like the instagram and facebook photo booths, the miniature of Monas, the miniature of windmill, the miniature of house, and big replica of butterfly, and the swings for the visitors to play. For the accessibility, the visitors can use their vehicles, public transportation or online transportation to reach the Celosia Flower Park and the condition of the road is good. There are hotels and restaurants that can be found near the Celosia Flower Park. The Celosia Flower Park is managed by Mr. Mirwan as the owner and Springhill Palembang Residential. The Celosia Flower Park provided public facilities such as parking area, toilets, canteens, praying area, and some huts. Those five aspects are interrelated each other and it makes the Celosia Flower Park is potential as a new tourism destination in Palembang.

5.2. Suggestion

The writer would like to give some suggestion to the Celosia Flower Park. For the management of the Celosia Flower Park should add more attractions so the visitors can do more activities while in the Celosia Flower Park and also should add more huts and seating area for the visitors to take a rest and having shelter. For the government should consider the inclusion of the Celosia Flower Park in the list of tourism destination in Palembang.
