

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter is present about the conclusion and the suggestion of the research.

5.1. Conclusion

The writer concludes that Green Canyon has potential as a tourism destination in Lahat regency. It has fulfilled three aspects of the potential tourism destination such as attraction, amenities, and accessibility. The potential of Green Canyon has attracted the attention of visitors and has a tourist attraction with very beautiful natural scenery. The attractions in Green Canyon are swim and take some photos. Green Canyon also has good amenities, such as parking area, traditional booth, praying room, and toilets. Green Canyon also provides good accessibility, such as roads that make it easy to reach destinations by private transportation and there are also restaurants near the location that can support tourism. Those three aspects are related each other and made Green Canyon as a potential tourism destination in Lahat.

5.2. Suggestion

Based on the result of The Potency of Green Canyon as a Tourism Destination in Lahat Regency, the writer would like to give suggestions, such as:

1. Stakeholders must participate in expanding the praying room, so it can accommodate more people
2. Stakeholders must be organized the parking area, so it can accommodate more transportations.
