Dear Mr. Fatahul Arifin

We have finished the review and made decision on your manuscript entitled [OPTIMIZATION MICRO MOLDING OF A BICONCAVE STRUCTURE] which was submitted to International Journal of Technology.

We have decided that your manuscript Need to be Revised

We also send you the review result from the reviewers. Here is the detail review result:

Notes from Editor:
Please revise according to reviewr's comment and it is suggested to include at least 2 relevant IJTech articles as references

Reviewer (1)

Introduction:
The story of previous research was not written in chronological order and seems unrelated. Please rewrite in chronological order and find correlation between those papers.

Methodology:

Results and Discussion:
Please write the reason why the best factor combination happens in 9th experiment. Please give a calculation to show that draft angle is not important in this case. "Draft angle should design in the molding of this LED lens in the future study using PC material." --> this sentence is strange. Please correct.

References:
Please order references in alphabetical order.

Other:
Conclusion The conclusion is not written properly. Third sentence is strange. Second sentence in second paragraph is strange too. Please rewrite.

Reviewer (2)

Introduction:

please emphasis why select biconcave structure as the product target, please give the scientific reasons.

Methodology:

Rheological properties of the raw material are necessary to be explained in the manuscript. Please put the material data especially rheological properties and thermal properties.

Results and Discussion:

Fig 4 Why at the higher temperature of the mold injection process is not complete ? Normally at higher mold temperature injection is complete. In the other hand at lower mold temperature, the air bubble is produced in the injection part.
