Dear Mr Arifin,

Your submission entitled "Study on micromolding of a high viewing angle LED lens" has been received by the journal, however, it is being returned to you for the following reason(s):

1. The corresponding author is missing in the manuscript. Please revise.
2. Your co-author, [Dr. Min-Wen Wang], has not responded to the verification of authorship request. Without confirmation from all co-authors of their authorship we cannot send your paper for review and as such your paper has been unsubmitted. Please ask your co-author to confirm authorship of this paper before resubmitting your manuscript

Please address the above issue(s) prior to resubmitting your manuscript. You will find your submission under 'Submissions Sent Back to Author' where you can edit the submission.

Thank you for submitting your work to this journal.

Kind regards,

Prempriya Mohan

Dear Editor,
 Thank you for e-mail. I have already revised the article by adding the corresponding author e-mail address, and confirmed the co-author Dr. Min-Wen Wang, and changed his e-mail, mwwang@nkust.edu.tw. Then I have send all files to the system and approved it. However, I don't get any confirmation by system now. Please inform me if you already received all my files. Thank you for your help and information.

Sincerely yours,
 Fatahul Arifin
