

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusions

After the writer did an observation, collected the data, and did an interview. The writer concludes, there are two aspects to be a historical tourism object destination in Palembang. Firstly, the inside aspects. It means, to be a historical tourism object destination, a museum should follow the requirements and it is divided into three aspects, those are, the inscriptions, the skull, and traditional house. Secondly, the outside aspects. It means, to be a historical tourism object destination, a museum should follow the requirement. That is the strategic location, and it is divided into three kinds. Those are, the location can be reached easily by the visitors, the location should be far away from industry area, the condition of land should be better.

Firstly, As one of the museums that exists in Palembang, the main function of Balaputra Dewa museum is delivering the educational mission for people or visitors. Although the most of visitors are coming for recreation, but museum has to be able to make their visit become more interesting and become a part of learning process in the museum.

Secondly, The Staffs of Balaputra Dewa museum explain about the inside and outside aspects to be a historical tourism object destination in Palembang. The staffs also say that the museum is non-profit organization but it can provide and save about historical values.

Thirdly, Based on observation was done by the writer, he got the data (documentation) about the number of visitors for the last three years. The number of visitors also increase for the last three years from 2011 year to 2013 year, it can prove that Balaputra Dewa museum is one of historical tourism object for visitors .

5.2 Suggestion

The function of museum, not only for recreation for tourists but also museum as a place to provide many informations about historical values. The government and the staffs of Balaputra Dewa museum must cooperate to keep all the things includes inscriptions, the skull, traditional house (Limas house) in Balaputra Dewa museum. As the result, cooperating between the government and the staffs in Balaputra Dewa museum will make many visitors come to Balaputra Dewa museum. If there are many visitors come to Balaputra Dewa museum, museum will get income from visitors. It proves that Balaputra Dewa museum is one the historical tourism object destination in Palembang.
