

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1. Conclusions

The writer making a booklet about Tunggu Tubang culture from Semende. In making a booklet, the writer used the method of implementation. The writer used several stages of implementation method, namely gathering ideas, outlining, making the first draft, and validation of expert. This booklet contains 22 pages in A4 with Indonesian and English text. To get some information, knowledge, opinions, the writer taking the steps of observation and interviews at the Tanah Abang Village, Semende. To revised this product, the writer needs some comments and sugestions from the experts in content, language (English and Indonesian) and design. The booklet of is expected to be a medium to give an infromation and promote about Tunggu Tubang culture from Semende.

5.2. Suggestions

The writer recommends that the next researchers to developed this booklet by adding more information and pictures about the process of making Songket fabric. Due the process to much time, this product does not complete yet. The writer did not do the last step of research and development namely: wider testing and dissemination. For the next researchers the writer suggests conducting wider testing and dissemination.