

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this, the writer makes the conclusion and the suggestion to South Sumatra Culture and Tourism Office.

5.1 Conclusion

The grammatical errors which have been found in Guide Book of South Sumatra are the errors in using verb, singular and plural noun, subject verb agreement, between two sentences are not connected each other, errors in choosing the words, and et cetera. Types of errors which appear in Guide Book of South Sumatra are omission errors, addition errors, misinformation errors, and misordering errors. The errors are 34.25 % omission errors, 12.70 % addition errors, 48.06 % misinformation errors, and 4.97 % misordering errors.

According to the description above, the writer would like to conclude that Guide Book of South Sumatra is not regarded as a good promotion material. It is deduced that the errors need to be revised so that the tourists will understand the description in its book easier.

5.2 Suggestion

The writer would like to suggest the South Sumatra Culture and Tourism Office to make this Guide Book of South Sumatra better. Because it represents our readiness in providing tourism object, and our tourism object is not only intended to local tourist, but also international tourist in global market. It is also purposed to face AFTA (Asean Free Trade Area) so that South Sumatra's tourism object is able to compete with other country starting from the small one namely this Guide Book of South Sumatra to promote South Sumatra's tourism object well.