

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

Based on the result from the data that the writer has analyzed the forms of common jargon in Jakarta Post, it can be concluded there are 4 forms of jargon which are used by Jakarta Post newspaper. They are the word form, the phrase form, the abbreviation form, and the acronym form. Based on the result, the Jakarta Post newspaper used the word form with total 111, the phrase form with total 43, the abbreviation form with total 28, and then the acronym form with total 7. Based on the result, the word form is the most common form that found in the articles.

5.2 Suggestion

The writer would like to suggest the readers of newspaper that they should know more what is language and words using by the newspaper. By reading the newspaper, the reader will identify the language and words in newspaper especially the jargon. Therefore, the reader will know more about the language and words of jargon in newspaper. The writer also would like to suggest the students of English Department to learn more about jargon because it is important to study and understand about jargon. By reading this final report, they can get more education and reference related to the forms of jargon in newspaper. Besides, they also can explore and find the others jargon much more in communication in order to learn more about jargon that belong to a particular trade, profession, or any other group bound together by mutual interest in their communication of social life.