ABSTRACT

The final report titled "The Potential of Masjid Raya Abdul Kadim as a Religious Tourism Destination in South Sumatera" explores the mosque's attractiveness through four key elements: attractions, accessibility, amenities, and ancillary services. The study highlights the mosque's rich historical and cultural significance, making it a compelling attraction for religious tourists. It also examined the ease of access to the mosque, the quality and availability of amenities for visitors, and the supporting services that enhance the overall tourist experience. Through this comprehensive analysis, the report aims to demonstrate the mosque's potential to become a prominent religious tourism destination in the region.

Keywords : Potential, Abdul Kadim Grand Mosque
