

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

5.1. Conclusions

The conclusions of this final report are:

1. The consumers stated that baked pumpkin muffins have the better color on visual than steamed pumpkin muffin.
2. The consumers stated that baked pumpkin muffins have the better aroma than steamed pumpkin muffin.
3. The consumers stated that baked pumpkin muffins have the better texture than steamed pumpkin muffin.
4. The consumers stated that baked pumpkin muffins are tastier than steamed pumpkin muffins.
5. The writer hypothesis accepted by showing that all the respondents of questionnaires agreed about the baked pumpkin muffins get all better than steamed pumpkin muffins.
6. Baked pumpkin muffin was better than steamed pumpkin muffin, it is because of the caramelization from baking process which make good color, good texture, good aroma and good taste.

5.2. Suggestions

The writer gives suggestion for this final report to should being innovative to utilize food ingredients, and pay more attention for cooking time of both muffins: steamed pumpkin muffins need more times to cook than the baked one.