

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

From the explanation of the previous chapters, the writer has drawn conclusion. Backpacker guidebook is a book that contains the complete information about what to see in a place, where to stay, how to travel around, and where to eat. Guidebook also can be an information media for backpackers in visiting some places, especially in Palembang.

In line with the problem of this final report, there are three steps that can be used to design the guidebook such as preliminary study, model development and final product testing and dissemination. In addition, the guidebook can be used as a tool of information for backpackers in visiting Palembang city.

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the research and development conducted by the writer, the content of guidebook is almost complete. However, this guidebook is not complete yet to become an information tool for backpackers. Therefore, the writer has some suggestions: further research and development to design this guidebook is required to add information about range of price of hotels and also the estimation of budget to do backpacking in Palembang.
