

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter presents the conclusion and the suggestion.

5.1 Conclusion

Research and Development modification method that consists of preliminary study, model development and final product testing step really helped the writer in designing a booklet entitled “Al-Qur’an Al-Akbar Museum”. In the first step, preliminary study, the writer did the literature study, field survey and model draft design. The literature study was conducted by reading some articles and journals about booklet and Al-Qur’an Al-Akbar field survey was conducted by observing the Al-Qur’an Al-Akbar Museum and interviewing one of the local guide there, and the model draft design was done after getting all the information from literature study and field survey.

In the second step, model development step, limited and wider testing were conducted in order to develop the booklet draft. In limited testing, one of Al-Qur’an Al-Akbar Museum staff was suggested to add, paraphrase and revised the information about Al-Qur’an Al-Akbar Museum in the booklet draft. In wider testing, the revised model draft was checked by two experts, the manager of Al-Qur’an Al-Akbar museum and one of the promotion department staff of Tourism Ministry of South Sumatera. The first expert commented in the content of the Al-Qur’an Al-Akbar Museum booklet, including adding, paraphrasing, organizing and completing the information that included in the booklet. While, the second expert focused on the words used and types of information in the booklet draft.

In the last step, final product testing, the revised booklet draft in limited and wider testing was commented by a design expert and the director of Al-Qur’an Al-Akbar Museum. The first expert focused on the booklet design; covers, background and font color. While, the last expert suggested to add information about Al-Qur’an Al-Akbar Museum. The experts’ valuable comments are used to revise the booklet draft and make the final booklet. The booklet provides two different language versions, English and Indonesian. The booklet was designed in A6 paper size. The booklet has 16 pages; each language version has 8 pages. The booklet contains about the general information and the making of Al-Qur'an Al-Akbar Museum, facilities, location, entrance ticket, contact and donation.

5.2 Suggestion

Because in this research the dissemination step was not conducted due to lack of fund, legality, time and skill, the writer suggests the next researcher to do the dissemination step for the next time.
