

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter presents the conclusion and the suggestion.

5.1 Conclusion

Research and Development modification method that consists of preliminary study, model development and final product testing step really helped the writer in designing a story book entitled “The legend of Ratu Bagus Kuning and Siluman Kera Story Book for Kids”. In the first step, preliminary study, the writer did the literature study, field survey and model draft design. The literature study was conducted by reading some articles and journals about kids’ story book and field survey was conducted by interviewing an Illustrator also documentation at Book stores, and the model draft design was done after getting all the information from literature study and field survey.

In the second step, model development step, limited and wider testing were conducted in order to develop the story book draft. In limited testing, the expert gave correction about the language used in the story book draft. He was suggested to changing some vocabularies, paraphrasing the sentence and adding new language version. In wider testing, the revised model draft was checked by two experts, a teacher and a lecturer in Psychology department at Sriwijaya University. The first expert commented about the Indonesian language, the comments included changing and omitting some vocabularies, and adding new pages. While, the second expert comments whether the words used in the story book were good or not for kids.

In the last step, final product testing, the revised story book draft in limited and wider testing was commented by a design expert. The expert asked to add some ornaments on the story book, change the fonts that using English, change the background on page four to yellow, and add the pages.

The experts' valuable comments are used to revise the story book draft and make the final story book. The story book provides two different language versions, English and Indonesian. The story book was designed in A5 paper size. The booklet has 20 pages including cover and back cover. The story book contains about the story of Ratu Bagus Kuning and Siluman Kera.

5.2 Suggestion

Because in this research the dissemination step was not conducted due to lack of fund, legality, time and skill, the writer suggests the next researcher to do the dissemination step for the next time.
