

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter presents the conclusion of designing storybook “The Legend of Bagus Kuning” for children and also the suggestions for the purpose of the storybook.

5.1 Conclusion

From the explanation in the previous chapter, the writer gets some conclusions. Children storybook is one of medias really needed for children. In a storybook for children, the story is full of imaginative story and also has funny avatar and full color design to increase of reading interesting. In this case, the writer made an imaginative story not only to entertain the children, but also introduce the part of culture of Indonesia especially Palembang. In the storybook the children can know about the culture and also learn a good moral value.

5.2 Suggestion

The writer suggests that:

1. The parents of the children can teach their children about culture indirectly and also to impact the moral values to children. Introducing good book to them is necessary, it could be their nurterent effect in running this life
2. The book publishers and authors should publish and write many kinds of storybooks for children about the culture in Indonesia especially Palembang, because Palembang is rich of legendary. In short, such a way will inderectly introduce our own culture and local tourism.
