

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

Penguton dance is one of the heritage cultures that still exists until now and contain of culture created by H. Bakhri in 1889. The elements of a dance are 4 elements such as Wiraga, Wirama, Wirasa, and Wirupa. All of the elements are included in a Penguton dance, and it becomes the potencies as cultural tourism attraction. First, Wiraga related with the movement of this dance has a lot of value of culture and it describes the princess from each marga. Second, Wirama related with the rhythm and instrument. Penguton dance has simple rhythm and monoton make this dance become interesting and unique. Thirs, Wirasa related with the expression, because of the character of this dance is a princess, so the dancer should smile while dancing. And the last is Wirupa related with the appearance of a dancer. In Penguton dance, the nine dancers have different accessories, costume and property, it makes this dance more unique and different from others. the uniqueness, the function and the background of this dance also make this dance become more potential as cultural tourism attraction. The uniqueness can attract the tourist which can be seen from the elements of a dance. The function of this dance is to welcome an honour guest.

From the explanation above, the writer concludes that Penguton dance has potencies to become tourism attraction by considering the elements of a dance.

5.2 Suggestions

The writer suggests to all people who are concerned with Penguton dance

1. The writer suggests to the Government especially for the Regent of OKI regency, to keep this dance and perform every year and preserve this dance as one of the heritage culture and as the precious one not to be lost.

2. The writer suggests to all the citizen in Kayuagung that to know about heritage culture in our cities is important. So, we can promote it to the tourists.
3. For the institution that relates with the promotion is to make a book to give the source of information to the tourists and for the citizen. So, it can help the tourists and the citizen understand about Penguton dance.