

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter explains the conclusion and the suggestion of the final report.

A. Conclusion

Story book is a book that contains a story or stories, especially for children. There are many story books in the book stores, but not every story book has a good content like no moral value or negative impact for the children as the reader. Story book is a media for the children know about some story and some children will applied the story in their life.

“ Si Pahit Lidah and Si Mata Empat “ is the attractive story book for children. The packaging of story book was good, from character, the content and the positive impact for the readers. The children can get the moral value messages which give the good impact for their life. Then, the story book’s characteristic is different from other story books whose content or the story told about princess or popular characters for children.

B. Suggestion

The writer expected the children to read the story book containing cerita rakyat or legend. It is known in Indonesia there are so many legends that the content is much better than modern story books. Palembang also has some cerita rakyat or legend that the children does not know. Besides the content, from cerita rakyat or legend there are always moral value messages that are good for children. By reading the stroy book the writer made is is hoped that the children are more respectful to the histories and tourisms from Indonesia especially South Sumatera and will understand more about the legendary stories related to the cerita rakyat or legend.
