

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

English camp is English study program which makes the students should use English as their media to communicate. In English camp there are four things to improve the students skill in learning English. They are reading skill, writing skill, listening skill and speaking skill. The result of the percentage is 41,7 % stated strongly agree, 42,9 % agree, 12,9 % is in the category neutral, 2,9 % chose disagree, and 0% is strongly disagree. Based on the result, English camp is important for students English skill because in English camp the students can study English while they are working in the team in a funny way, enhance the proficiency level amongst the students from various technical and vocational institutions, and it expected to engender intrinsic motivation amongst the pupils and also invite them to use their language more effectively.

5.2 Suggestion

The writer would like to suggest that English camp should be held every year and invite some other countries in ASEAN, besides Indonesia, Malaysia and Thailand with the purpose to make the students can socialize with more different ethnics. And also for English department of State Polytechnic of Sriwijaya to hold similar program and involve the students from each department in State Polytechnic of Sriwijaya with the purpose to improve their English skill.
