

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter presents the conclusion of designing story book of the legend “Putri Biyuku” for children and also the suggestion for the purpose of the story book.

5.1 Conclusion

From the explanation in previous chapter, the writer gets some conclusions. Children story book is one of medias really needed for children. In a storybook for children, the story is full of imaginative and also has funny avatar and full color design to increase reading interesting. There are many storybooks in the book stores, but not every story book has a good content like no moral value or negative impact for the children as the reader.

“Putri Biyuku” is one of stories in South Sumatra, but just a few people that know about the story. In this case, the writer made the story book about the legend of “Putri Biyuku” not only to entertain the children, but also introduce one of legends in South Sumatra especially Banyuasin regency. In this story book the children can know about the legend and also learn about good moral value.

5.2 Suggestion

The writer expects the children to read the story book about the legend. It is known in Indonesia there are so many legends that the content is much better than modern storybooks. By reading the storybook the writer made is hoped that the children are more respectful to the histories and tourism from Indonesia especially South Sumatra and will understand more about legendary stories related to the legend. The writer suggests to the parents of the children to teach their children about culture and also to impact the moral values to children. And also the writer suggests to the publisher and authors should publish and write many kinds of story book for children about culture in Indonesia especially South Sumatra, because South Sumatra rich of legendary. Of course, it will indirectly introduce our own culture and local tourism.
