CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

This chapter explains about the conclusions and suggestions of the final report.

5.1   Conclusion

From the explanation in previous, the writer gets some conclusions. The booklet of Palembang historical tourism destinations can be used as the media promotion to promote historical tourism destination in Palembang. For designing this booklet, the writer used Research and Development method (preliminary study, model development, and final product testing) which are modified by Sukmadinata (2005). Knowledge of historical tourism destinations in Palembang, English and Indonesian skills, and graphic design skill are needed in designing this booklet. First, knowledge about historical tourism destinations in Palembang obtained by observation and read the document so the writer is not wrong in describing information. Second, writing skill is needed so that the writer can describe the information well with focus on the grammar, conjunction, vocabulary, and others. And third the writer needs the equipment to support the writer's graphic skill such as the photoshop application, so the writer can make the model draft of Palembang historical tourism destinations. The writer needs some comments, suggestions, and advices from the expert in developing the model draft in field of information, language, and booklet design.

5.2   Suggestion

The writer suggests the next researcher should find more information about heritage of colonialism from Japan in Palembang to other experts which have more knowledge about colonialism Japan. Then, the writer hope that the next researcher is expected to use the dissemination step for the next time, because it can help people to know about historical tourism destinations in Palembang.
