ABSTRACT

DESIGNING A BOOKLET OF 4 WATERFALLS IN PAGARALAM, SOUTH SUMATERA

Alif Dema Nirwana Jaya, 2018, 28 Pages, 18 Picture

The purpose of this final report is to know how to design this booklet to make the people interest about the natural attraction in Pagaralam and to increase the knowledge and reading interest. In this final report, the writer uses “Design and Implementation” methods. The “Design and Implementation” include two steps, they are: (1) The Data Draft and (2) The Step of Design. And after that the writer tells about how to design this booklet. The writer used hardware and software while design this booklet. And the writer tells about information about the waterfalls in Pagaralam. The information tell about general information that is useful for the tourist when visiting Pagaralam Cities. The writer conclude that for designing the booklet, we have to consider the five elements of design, namely shape, space, line, texture, and color, and the writer suggested the government of pagaralam should be increased reading interest in young people especially in pagaralam. And the goverment could more innovated in promoting and developing tourism product to attract tourist to visit Pagaralam City.
