

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

From the explanation on the previous chapters, the writer concludes that there are 2 steps in designing islamic religious tourism booklet. They are research step and development step. In the first step, the writer found information about Islamic Religious Tourism in Palembang as the content of the booklet. The second step the writer conducted some development of the booklet. The writer asked for comments from the experts in graphic design and language/grammar. The expert stated that the cover should be able to represent the contents of the booklet. The pictures on the cover must represent all destinations in the booklet. The use of colors should vary to make it more attractive. The use of font should not be more than three types. Moreover, the formal font such as Time New Roman, Arial and Calibri should be used. The writer followed all the suggestions given by the experts have been applied in the development of the textbook as the final product.

5.2 Suggestion

The writer suggests that:

1. It is better for Government to provide a media, especially booklet to promote other tourism destinations.
2. Kinds of tourism destinations booklet can be developed by the writer's juniors.
