

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

This chapter presents the conclusion and suggestions of designing a traditional food script and video of morning culinary in Palembang.

5.1 Conclusion

In the process of making script and video, the writer used various steps to obtain a good final report. The writer has already done limited field testing and wider field testing for about 1 month. In limited testing, the writer asked some experts such as the expert of linguistics, video, and content of traditional food of morning culinary in Palembang. After revised some mistakes based on the expert's suggestion in limited testing, the writer asked the other expert of linguistics, video, and content in wider testing to correct some mistaken. After consulting the script, video, and content with all experts, the writer finally got the perfect script and video. As a result of scientific research, the writer has an obligation to share the writer's knowledge to public. Therefore, the writer uploaded the video of traditional food of morning culinary in Palembang through You Tube as the dissemination of this research.

5.2 Suggestion

The writer suggests other students to continue developing new ideas in writing final report about Palembang traditional culinary to attract tourist to come to Palembang city because traditional foods is an asset of our city. Moreover, for public, this video can be used as an information medium about Palembang traditioanl culinary.