

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

5.1 Conclusion

It can be concluded that phrases can be found in every sentence since phrases act as a building block of sentences. A Phrase is a group of words that doesn't contain subject and verb and it must be completed by the whole part of sentence to deliver a complete idea of the sentence.

Based on the study of types of phrases found in the novel The Boy In The Striped Pyjamas by John Boyne. The types of phrases found in the novel are Noun Phrase, Verb Phrase, Adverb Phrase, Adjective Phrase, Prepositional Phrase, Infinitive Phrase, Participle Phrase, Gerund Phrase, and Absolute Phrase. The type of phrase that mostly found in the novel The Boy In The Striped Pyjamas by John Boyne is verb phrase, with the total amount of it is 4334 and the percentage is 47.3% of all the phrases. And the type of phrase that the least found in the novel is Adverb Phrase, with the total amount of it is 19 and the percentage of it is 0.2%.

5.2 Suggestion

The writer suggests the upcoming researchers who want to conduct the typical research about the types of phrases to conduct a test for English Department students by giving them the same novel that the researchers use and let them to elicit the phrases in the novel and classify the type of the phrases. It is intended that the next researchers will get the data of English Department students' knowledge about phrases and the data will be beneficial for the grammar lecturers in teaching about phrases.