

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter explains about the conclusion and suggestion of the final report.

5.1. Conclusion

This study used the method of library approach and interviews to find some information about writing process and the content of the novella. There were four steps in writing the "I Do Dare" novella. The first step is to look for the story ideas and the information about Palembang traditional wedding dresses. The second step is to create a story frame or outline that contains the characters / characterizations, settings, plot, and point of view. The third step is to develop a story frame or outline. The last step is a revision or doing limited and wider testing. In writing the novella, the writer considered these elements: Prologue, Plot, Characters and Conflict. These elements help the writer to analyze and organize the content of novella easily. The three experts approved that the novella is publishable. The novella written in English and can be read by people from all over the world.

5.2. Suggestion

It is recommended that future novella author make careful preparations before writing a story and determine the appropriate story framework so that the story remains in the discussion.