

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION & SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

Legend is part of culture that must be preserved. There are many ways to attract people to read legend such as via printed magazine, e-magazine, and via some storybooks. Therefore, the writer made the storybook entitled “Putri Ayu Sundari”. Based on the explanations in the previous chapter, it can be concluded that there were two steps of the development of storybook. It were limited testing and wider testing. In limited testing, the writer revised the grammar and the choice of words for the script of storybook. In wider testing, the writer did a revision from front cover, the illustration of the prince, font of the script, page number, and back cover. The writer used the last revision from wider testing as the final product. The storybook consists 15 pages. The storybook is not only contains the text but also the illustration so that the storybook is more interesting. The writer also gave some quiz to the readers in the last page to see whether the readers understand the story.

5.2 Suggestion

The writer suggests the reader and the next researcher to use this final report as the references to write the final report and design a prototype of the storybook. And for the reader of the storybook, the writer suggests to learn the moral value from the story of Putri Ayu Sundari. After the reader learn the moral value from this storybook, the writer also suggest the reader to learn more about local legend in Indonesia and implement the moral value to their daily life.
